

Figure 0.1: The red function has a local minimum at  $x = \frac{2}{3}$ . If we place a hill (blue) at this position and add the functions together the local minimum disappears (black).